

Rylan Faith Caffey

July 17, 2009 - May 31, 2012

Rylan “RyBaby” or “RyBurger” Faith Caffey was born on July 17, 2009 in Tulsa, Oklahoma, to Ryan Caffey and Holleigh Cloke and passed on into her eternal life on May 31, 2012. She is survived by her parents, Ryan Caffey and Holleigh Cloke of Tulsa, Oklahoma, her big bubba Westin and two big sissies Aunna and Amira Caffey, Papa Kevin Cloke of Eldon, Iowa, Nana Michelle Cloke of Collinsville, Oklahoma, Grandpa Pat Bunch and many Uncles, Aunts, cousins and friends who will forever remember and celebrate the love she shared during her life. She is preceded in death by her GranGran Minnie Pearl Jones, Grandma Beverly Ann Cloke, Great-Aunt Becky Cooper, Cousin Gary David Cloke and many more. Æ Rylan Faith was a beautiful, blue eyed, untameable curly haired baby angel who was normally only wearing her diaper because she never wanted to keep her clothes on. She was known to all as very brave knowing no fear of anyone or anything, sweetly mischevious where no candy or unguarded drink was safe. She loved to dance and play with her brother and sisters any time of the day or night and would out dance them all. Rylan would always greet you with a sweet “hey you” and had a very sweet but onery smile that would tell you that she had just done something that she was not supposed to. One of her favorite past times was creating beautiful works of art on every surface and wall she could find and loved to show them off to all those around her, once she decided she wasn’t going to get in trouble. Rylan was fierce and didn’t hesitate to save her baby dolls from the hands of any who messed with them, and after she had won the battle to get them back, would make sure that those who had wronged her babies would think twice after being tackled. Rylan found so much enjoyment by digging in the dirt with her hands, waiting for her families back to be turned so she could raid the snack stash or steal their drinks, arguing, wrestling, honking noses, high fives and picking flowers. Her favorite song was “I’m Sexy & I Know It” but she loved music of all kind. Rylan will forever live in the hearts and memories of all those she touched in her life with her strong will, hilarious comments, beautiful smile & innappropriately passionate kisses. Æ She was the baby of her family but the leader, boss & dictator of them all. She was so tiny in size but would stand against a grown man to defend her older siblings, Momma & Daddy. She could pack a punch & didn’t mind throwing down, in fact, she loved to fight. She was a fighter in every sense of the word. She loved to play kiss fights between Momma & Daddy every night.Â She never said no to hugs & kisses from either but occasionally Momma got hit after she received her kiss! She knew how to bat her eyelashes & get her way with Daddy, a perfected art of hers.Â Rylan was the shot caller of the Caffey Crew, if she wanted something then she stopped at nothing to get it. She was definitely Daddy's little girl & Momma's little tyrant. She loved to steal any and every drink & meal from her Momma, arguing with Momma, another perfected art of hers. She was the light of the family & there was never a dull moment when she was present. Â Rylan was a go go go all day & night party animal, all or nothing, sporadic, sassy, confident, independent & loving, sweet baby girl. She owned every room she ever walked into & the hearts of everybody she ever came into contact with. Rylan will be forever missed by all those who knew & love her. For those who did not get the privilege of meeting her were robbed of an unforgettable little girl in their lives. No question that Rylan is in Heaven teaching her loved ones that were waiting there for her how to dance & making them laugh uncontrollably.

“ Rylan,
I miss you so much sissy you meant the world to me and even though it has been 7 years i still think about you every day. You were so sweet and I would love to see what you would look like to this day. If someone told me my life would change so much in so little time i would call them crazy, but its true so many things are different I know you can see me now and im sure your proud of me. You'd be 9 this year, and i feel like time has just flown by. I know i wouldn't be where i am now if that night wouldn't have happened but I wish i could get over the pain of losing you but we gain lives lose lives during our own and no matter what you always have to keep your head up now matter how much life whats you to put it down. Now matter how much we all miss you I know you are happier now and safe with your new life.

“ BabyGirl, we should have been celebrating your 3rd birthday but you aren't here, I don't understand why but I do have Faith that you're holding the fort down in Heaven waiting for us.... That doesn't take away the pain, nothing ever will but it does give me hope and peace that it's not forever, just until my work on Earth is through. I think about you constantly, you still make me laugh & smile all the time... I miss your sweet kisses, hugs, smile, bossing me around, drinking my drinks, eating my food, keeping me up all night and even the messes you made.... I am so lucky that God picked me to be your Momma, I am a better person because you were in my life. You taught me things that you didn't even know you were teaching me, love conquers all. I would do anything in the world to have you here with me but that's so selfish, I know you're in a far better place & I will see you again. I will do everything in my power while I wait for us to be reunited to honor your life by sharing my testimony of how God has led me through this tragedy, the glory goes to Him, by making sure I take the lessons I learned from you in life & death and being a better person from them. God has reasons for everything, a plan for us all, I just wish that I knew the master one behind losing you.... I love you & miss you more than words could ever describe sweetheart..... Until we meet again my Angel, Rock it out up there & visit me down here whenever you can.

“ It kills me every day that I know your're gone. I didn't get to know you very long but I feel lucky to have met you at all. It was just last week that we were playing together in the doctor's office waiting room watching you dance to that video that you loved so much of you and your sisters. I still haven't cleaned up the mess that mess that you left in my van. It may be just an excuse but everytime I see it I don't want to touch it because it was one of the last memories I have of you. I'm sorry that you had to leave after such a short time but I'm sure God has big plans for you. You touched my heart like no other. Don't ever stop shaking that booty little girl.

“ I forgot to tell you that I light candles in front of your picture every night and me & your Daddy say our prayers & tell you goodnight before we go to sleep. I will see you in Heaven, one day, but for now I have to stay here and take care of your sissies, bubba & Daddy..... Love you forever and ever, Amen.

“ RyBaby, Not a moment goes by that I'm not thinking, missing, or smiling about you. I hear and see you everywhere and that is because you carry a part of my soul with you. I have never been a poet nor claimed to be. I cannot express by mere words how you have impacted me. My world is less exciting, when I walk into a room there is no screaming of my name along with a barreling child followed closely after. I can't take off my shoes. For so long you have been doing it for me that I have lost all conception knots. Strangers don't appreciate a good nose-honking like you did, and they rarely play along. I still make 4 plates for dinner and I still order one too many items at stores. I miss you more than any word can express. I WILL see you again MyRy

“ I never knew Rylan, but I know her papa Kevin well. My heart was broken at the sudden loss of such a beautiful child. My thoughts and prayers will always be with your family. May you find peace and comfort knowing she will always be with you and be forever blessed by the gift that was given as your angel who was called home to take her place in heaven as Gods angel. With love and prayers from Iowa, The Liles family

“ **Rylan Faith Caffey* "RyBaby" "RyBurger" Momma's fearless little maniac, messy faced, booty shakin, snotty nosed, curly haired, ice blue eyed, drop dead gorgeous baby girl, I miss everything about you RyRy.... I keep thinking that I hear your voice, then I remember that you're not physically here anymore & I cry. You were the light of our family & we are all so lost without your energy surrounding us. Life will never be the same without you. Your beautiful smile and super adorable laugh cannot be re-enacted by anybody so we are thankful for the videos & pictures we have of you. Please keep dancing and singing your lil booty off in Heaven..... Give GranGran a run for her money..... You two may have met your matches in each other!!! I love You & will think of you & miss you Every Single Second Of Everyday Rylan Faith Caffey.....P.S. You're Sexy & You Know It!!!!*

“ Ryan, I thought I already did this but I guess mine didn't record somehow. You know I'm a sometimes tech challenged Grammy! I am so sorry that you have had to go through this and I wish I knew why because as you know it just doesn't seem fair all that you've been through. God promised that "in this world we will have trouble" but why one person's trouble is so different and seemingly so much worse than another's I do not understand. I wish I had a lot of memories of your precious Rylan but I only met her once at Braden's birthday party. She was beautiful and a little shy with us that day. I was so impressed, as always, by the wonderful behavior, manners and intelligence of your children and how great a Daddy you are! Please know that if there's anything we can do for you, just call us please! Bless you!

“ Rylan your GranGran will be so happy to have you with her. We know you are in heaven playing and being rocked in GranGran's arms. Your sweet little face IS the face of an angel. I know you were loved by many. I also know you will be missed by many. I pray for your family to stay strong and find a peacefulness in their heart that can ease some of their pain. With all of our love for you, the family and all that were blessed to know you.

“ Rylan you will always be remembered and live on forever... You are such a precious lil girl and so cute... You have inspired and touched so many people with your amazing present and I know and honestly believe tht you and granny penny are having a grand ol time(teaching her how to break it down to your favorite song) and she's teaching you everything bout your family and your teaching her so much bout things too... You have some of the best and strongest parents a lil girl could ever ask for... Rip ryburger.... I love you

“ We didn't have the opportunity to know Rylan very long, but she made quite an impression on us. Her mischievous smile and playfulness were familiar to me, however, having known her daddy. Sully and Oscar will miss her and will always remember the few precious times they were able to spend time in her sweet company.

“ Rylan's art is still on my furniture, her pictures are on my phone of her beautiful smile, her sock is still in Rachels drawer because she wanted to give it back to her herself, and her memory will always live in our hearts. We will miss you baby girl. A life taken so soon but not before making a place for herself in our hearts. Rylan would tell us all to dance and so or lives must go on with us on our toes ready to twirl. Love you guys.
