“ Thomas always stood up and protected me as a young child. Thomas was creative and talented and fun. I will always remember him dancing to T-Rex with gold Christmas tinsel wrapped around his neck. His sense on humor was outstanding even when being sarcastic. Thomas was giving. When he did not have much he still tried to help others in any way he could. Thomas looked at the inner beauty in all people and things. He commented on the beautiful souls he saw. Thomas could see the beautiful souls because Thomas had a beautiful soul! He loved my children tremendously. I will forever now challenge myself to be better person and see more of the good and beauty in people and things around me. This is because that is what Thomas did. I challenge us all to be more caring, more forgiving, more sharing, more open, more loving. These are all qualities Thomas embodied and practiced. Tell those you love...you love them. Tell them as often as you can. I love you Thomas and always will love you! Your little sister-April
