“ Susan and Family, We are so very sorry to hear of your loss. We know words cannot take your pain away but we hope in time your heart will heal. We hope that all of you hold Tom in your memory forever and be able to rebuild yourself around the loss. It will take time, when I experienced the loss of my family members I had a very good friend tell me: "Grief never ends, it changes. Its a passage not a place to stay. Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith...it is the price of love".With Sincere Sympathy, Yolanda Osborne & Family

“ Our condolences to Susan and family. Tom was one of the best friends a person could ever have. We were fortunate to grow up with Tom and were life long friends of him and Susan. Even though life took us in different directions from time to time, when ever we got back together it was like we had never been apart. Tom was the ever patient rock you could always count on. So glad we got together last weekend for one last laugh. Thanks Tom for all the memories.Jerry and Jan Duke

“ Tom, we almost made it 50 years of being such good friends. We had so many laughs and good times together all these years. We walked up and down so many hills at the cabin shooting our guns at anything that would move. I think we shot every can and bottle at the dump there every was dumped there. We left nothing for anyone else. We got them all old buddy. Did we not have a blast doing it. Sitting under the shade tree at my moms house talking for hours about everything we could think of. Then we would start the next day where we left off. Then came marriage for the both of us and we still kept up our friendship. I don't know how the girls could have put up with us. Then we started having kids and we still were together all the time. Either you and Susan and the kids were at our house or we were over at yours. My kids still have fond memories of use all being together. And if our wives and kids were going to go do something we would take to the cabin so we could shoot our guns all day. If I live to be a old man, I'm going too miss you for not being able to come along for the ride with me Tom. I'm so glad that we were together last Sat. night. I think the girls were ready to kill us for me getting us lost trying to find Jerry and Jan's house. All they could do is laugh at us for not knowing where in the heck we were at. We were close but no cigar. I will miss you deeply forever Tom. Your Old Buddy — David Seawright —

“ Dear Tom Green Family,I was deeply saddened to hear of Tom's passing. Although my sense of loss is nothing compared to yours, I consider him a personal friend and mentor and will sure miss seeing and speaking with him.I remember that when my wife was receiving cancer treatment in Arkansas we were gone almost three months over a year's time, often several weeks in a row. Throughout that time, Tom never expressed concern to me about missing work and the checks kept coming. It is a very rare individual that would be so understanding and this is a great loss.No words can comfort you in this time but I think Tom would say that the last several years since he beat brain cancer have been a blessing. Although he passed too soon, he enjoyed life and was able to see his children mature and enjoy his grandchildren and the success of the business.I encourage you to keep doing what you have been. I know he was extremely proud of the company he had built and of you all. If there is ever anything I can do to help please do not hesitate to call.He will certainly be missed.Sincerely, Jim Rice
